

Final meeting of the webinar *Smart Aging in Smart Cities? Societal and Individual Prerequisites from Polish and German Perspectives

January 10., 2020

BUW ul. Dobra 56/66, 00-312 Warsaw room 315, 3rd floor

9:00 Registration and coffee

9:30 Digitalization in smart city: processes, data, and management

chaired by Anna Nicińska

Marcin Adamski (Warsaw city council) on smart city solutions in Warsaw

Piotr Wójcik (University of Warsaw) on predicting well-being in Warsaw

Marek Pieniążek (Central Statistical Office) on relevant data availability

Marita McPhillips (Gdańsk University of Technology) on cooperation between clusters

11:30 Coffee and pastry

12:00 Selected results of the webinar's students work

chaired by Grzegorz Kula

Magda Lampart on three generations of smart cities in Europe and in Poland

Marta Modelska on ageing in urban context

Julian Jarząbkowski on social superblocks in Barcelona

Piotr Heba on robots and their use in ageing populations

14:00 Lunch

15:00 Panel discussion: multidisciplinary in the research on urban ageing

chaired by Weronika Przecherska

Chiara Del Bo (University of Milan)

Emmanuel Raju (University of Copenhagen)

Philipp Schulz (Heidelberg University)

Christiane Schwieren (Heidelberg University)

Katarzyna Śledziowska (University of Warsaw)

16:00 4EU+ meeting on further cooperation in the project

17:30 Farewell