Detailed information regarding reservations and payments at UW holiday centres

Fees must be paid by the due date indicated on the invoice.

- receipt of the invoice shall constitute an obligation to pay for the stay.
- resignation from booked places after the invoice has been paid results in the forfeiture of the fee, unless the resignation is justified by an important and documented fortuitous event (e.g. the death of a close relative or hospitalisation).
- in the case of an issued invoice, resignations from holiday stays at the UW holiday centres submitted less than 14 days before their commencement will not be considered.

Reservation of specific rooms is not available.

Pensioners and disability pensioners of the University of Warsaw who are not in an employment relationship with the University of Warsaw may use the facilities subject to room availability.

Between 09 – 20.03.2026, a meeting of the Committee for the Allocation of Places at the University of Warsaw holiday centres will be held. When deciding on the allocation of places, the Committee will also take into account:

a) the order in which applications are submitted;

b) the frequency with which the applicant has used the centres over the past three years;

The results of the Committee's proceedings will be communicated to applicants between 23–25.03.2026:

– to employees and doctoral candidates via the DocSense system;

– to pensioners and disability pensioners by telephone.
